DE LAVAL

SERVICE DAYS

At my Sales Room,
54 Court Street.

For the benefit of our many customers and users of the De Laval Cream Separators we have established a DE LAVAL SERVICE DAY.

On this date we shall be glad to have any De Laval user bring his complete separator to our store for a thorough and careful inspection and adjustment, which will be made free of charge. Should any parts, due to unusual wear or accident, need to be replaced, this will be done, the only charge being for the price of the new parts used. No charge will be made for the service.

A De Laval service man will be with us to assist with the work. Bring in your De Laval Separator and receive the benefit of his advice on the care and operation of the machine, as well as the free service.

DEATH OF MRS. JOHN WILLIAMS.

Mrs. Ellen Williams, widow of John Williams, died at her home in Sudbury Monday morning. She was 81 years old. Mrs. Williams was the daughter of Augustus and Sophia (Little) Wheeler. She married John Williams September 16, 1857, and had lived for over 40 years in the house where she died. Mr. Williams, who was a prominent farmer, died January 20, 1899. In April Mrs. Williams suffered a bad fall and had been confined to her bed since. Mrs. Williams is survived by a son, Guy Williams, a daughter, Mrs. John Bucklin, several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. The funeral was held at her late home Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. E. H. Jenkins officiated and Charles Stay of Brandon had charge. Roy Ketcham, Edward Griffin, Morris Sullivan and Clyde Barber were the bearers. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Churchill of Brandon and Bert Williams and family of Castleton attended the funeral.

FRED A. BRUNELLE DEAD.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Dillon have returned from Burlington, where they were called to attend the funeral of Mrs. Dillon's brother, Fred A. Brunelle, whose death occurred suddenly Saturday morning at the home of his son, Leo Brunelle, in Worcester, Mass. Death was caused by apoplexy. The body was brought to his home in Burlington Saturday evening and the funeral was held Monday morning. Mr. Brunelle was well known in Middlebury, being a slate roof contractor, one of his contracts being the slating of the roof of St. Mary's Catholic church in this village. Mr. Brunelle leaves besides his wife, two sons, Leo of Worcester and Lawrence Brunelle of Burlington.

WARNING!

GET the glowing punk and the crack-er out;
Let the loud torpedo busily boom;
Flutter the banner and bravely shout;
Give to the screeching old eagle room;
Tell the wondering, listening world once more
Of the glory we claim and our strength and pride;
Let the shout be echoed from shore to shore
And wafted o'er prairie and mountain side;
Let the folds of our glorious flag be tossed
High o'er the heads of unshackled men—
But don't forget that the hand that is lost
Will never grow on your wrist again.

A VICTIM, BUT CHEERFUL.

SHOUT of the glory our ancestors won;
Let the Declaration be proudly read;
Tear a hole through the roof with the rusty gun;
Cause the dogs to hide or to flee in dread;
Let the czars and the kings of the world be told
Of the pride and the strength of a freeborn race;
Let the welkin ring as it rang of old;
Make the land we claim an uproarious place;
Shoot and shout all the glorious day;
Whoop of the greatness of freeborn men—
But remember the nose that is shot away
Will never grow on your face again.
—S. E. Kiser in Chicago Herald.

ONE BOY'S FOURTH.

He Wound It Up In a Blaze, but Not One of Glory.

"When I was many years younger I spent a very unhappy Fourth of July," said Louis James, the famous actor. "During three weeks preceding this period I made myself useful to our neighbors—when my mother couldn't find me—in order that I might have a fund sufficient to buy fireworks."

"I counted over my three weeks' wages doing chores. They amounted to 37 cents. The night preceding the Fourth I went with my parents to church, much against my will, for I wanted to exult with my playmates over my lately acquired wealth. I was the most restless member of that congregation and amused myself by annoying mother. I was so very naughty that I was not allowed out of the house the next day until evening."

"In the meantime I studied how to get even with my parents for this severe punishment, and after due deliberation I determined to set our neighbor's house on fire. I succeeded, and to this day I recollect how forlorn I was at the end of it. I got all that was coming to me from my parents."

An Independence Day Resolution.

I am a citizen of America and am heir to all her greatness and renown. The health and happiness of my own body depend upon each muscle and nerve and drop of blood doing its work in its place. So the health and happiness of my country depend upon each citizen doing his work in his place. I will not fill any post or pursue any business where I can live upon my fellow citizens without doing them useful service in return, for I plainly see that this must bring suffering and want to some of them. I will do nothing to desecrate the soil of America or pollute her air or degrade her children, my brothers and sisters. I will try to make her cities beautiful and her citizens healthy and happy, so that she may be a desired home for myself now and for her children in days to come.
—Anonymous.

ONE VERY SILENT FOURTH.

No starry banner was unfurled;
No patriots whooped a cheer;
No bells rang out to toll the world
The glorious Fourth was here.

No grand parades marched up and down
The starry spangled ways.
To stand for liberty and crown
The day of all our days.

No popping crackers raised a din
From Oregon to Maine;
No restless little boys not in
The list of maimed and slain.

No eagle screamed from height to height;
No bands were out to play;
No blazing fireworks made the night
As brilliant as the day.

No Declaration anywhere
Was read to cheering throngs,
No oratory filled the air,
Nor patriotic songs.

And yet it was July the Fourth,
As sure as you're alive,
But listen—it was July 4th
Of 1776.

See?
—W. J. Lampton in New York World.

An Old Time

July 4 Song

Nobly our flag flutters o'er us today,
Emblem of peace, pledge of liberty's way;
Its folds shall tremble and shrink in dismay
If ever insulted it be.
Our stripes and stars, loved and honored
By all,
Shall float forever where freedom may emerge.
It still shall be the flag of the free,
Emblem of sweet liberty.

CHORUS.

Here we will gather, to cause to defend;
Let patriots rally and who cannot lend
It still shall be the flag of the free,
Emblem of sweet liberty.

With it in beauty no flag can compare;
All nations honor our banner so fair.
If to insult it, a traitor should dare,
Crushed to the earth let him be!
Freedom and progress our watchword to-day.

When duty calls us who dare disobey?
Honor to thee, thou flag of the free,
Emblem of sweet liberty.
